

Stamping Requirements

Every architect registered in Oregon must have a stamp bearing the name of the registrant along with the city and state in which the architect's principal office is located. A copy of the design and the lettering of the stamp appears above.

You may find the full rule on stamping requirements outlined under OAR 806-010-0045.